

Old Dominion Honors Georgia Employee with John Yowell Award

Prestigious service award recognizes North Georgia driver

THOMASVILLE, N.C. (May 24, 2017) — Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. announced the 2017 John Yowell OD Family Spirit Award recipient is Orrin Mannozi (“OC”). OC is a line haul driver for the North Georgia service center in Pendergrass, GA.

OC lives in Georgia with his wife, Dollie. They have 3 children, 5 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. He is a Veteran of the U.S. Air Force, and joined the OD family in 2007.

Old Dominion created the award to preserve the legacy of the late John Yowell, former OD Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, and his perpetual spirit of giving. The award recognizes an employee who embodies the OD Family Spirit through selfless dedication to helping others.

OC and his family support the Madison County Crisis Center and Department of Family and Children Services, helping troubled teenagers, the homeless, hungry, elderly and people needing financial assistance.

“Winning the John Yowell award is extremely humbling. I never thought I would win an award like this. God has given me the opportunities and tools to help others, and I am truly thankful,” said Orrin Mannozi.

He also shared that he enjoys working at Old Dominion because of the family atmosphere and daily support from management, including great equipment and training.

"OC's co-workers describe him as a good man working with professionalism, integrity and safety," said David Congdon, Vice Chairman of the Board and CEO of Old Dominion Freight Line. "Through his service in the community, his church and with our employees, OC truly embodies the OD Family Spirit and serves as an inspiration to us all."

During his 9-year tenure with Old Dominion, OC has driven nearly 1 million miles without a preventable accident.
