

Old Dominion New York Service Center Relocation

New York facility relocates due to regional growth

Middletown, N.Y. (June 23, 2016) —Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc. has relocated its Newburgh service center to 300 Ballard Road in Middletown, NY 10941.

The 86-door, seventeen-acre facility is located between Route 17 and Interstate 84, allowing for easy accessibility to and from all service areas.

"We recently relocated to this facility to keep up with Old Dominion's strong growth in the region," said Mark Madden, OD regional vice president of the Northeast. "We are proud of our enhanced service center, and the ability to provide premium service and better efficiency in our operations here."

The North Carolina-based less-than-truckload (LTL) carrier, has six service centers in New York. Along with Newburgh, there are locations in Albany, Buffalo, Brooklyn, Long Island and Syracuse.

The relocation of the Newburgh Service Center will allow for future growth as well as employment opportunities.

The Newburgh facility provides direct service to Ellenville, Kingston, Wassaic, Millerton, Fishkill, Brewster, Poughkeepsie, Beacon, Peekskill, Newburgh, and Goshen.
