To: Whom it may concern

Subject: HM-232

The Department of Transportation provides regulatory requirements regarding Transportation Security, better known as HM-232. These requirements went into effect September 25, 2003 and Old Dominion issued an original statement of compliance on September 22, 2003.

This statement is to confirm that Old Dominion has remained in compliance with HM-232 and will continue to do so.

Please advise if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,
